Technical skills and competences

Laboratory procedures in AIH diagnostic

- preparing and processing rat tissues for substrate preparation
- cryostat microtome-based tissue fixation on slides
- performing and interpreting indirect immunofluorescence tests on rat tissues and cellular substrates (e.g. HEp-2 cells)
- performing and evaluating ELISA tests
- performing and evaluating ImmunoBLOT tests

Cellular immunology techniques

- performing basic techniques in PBMC separation from other blood cells by Ficoll medium
- evaluating PBMC viability (e.g. Trypan blue exclusion test)
- performing T cell subset and clonal isolation by immuno-magnetic bead kits
- performing and evaluating FITC-conjugated MAB-labelled T cells by flow-citometry
- performing basic procedures in cell fixing and permeabilizing techniques (e.g. Fix and Perm, Caltag Medsystems, Buckingham, UK) for intracellular fluorophore-conjugated MAB labelling
- performing and evaluating T cell functional assays (e.g. IFN- production)
